Beach Cottages

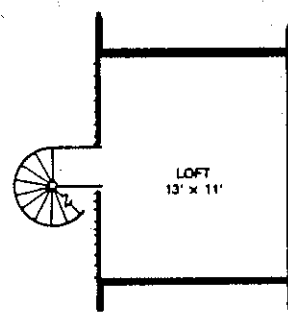

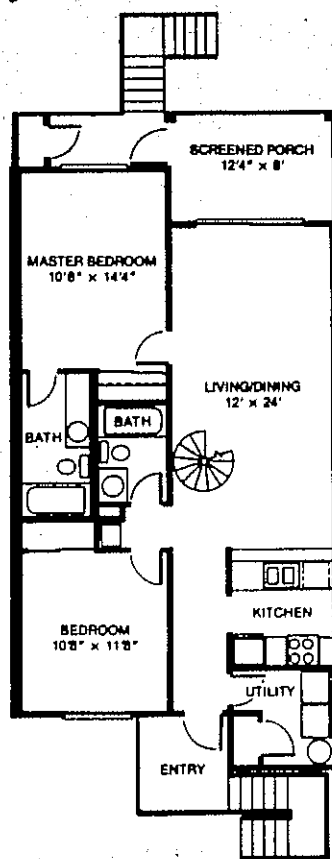

A place for sand, surf and serenity

Nowhere will you experience a true sand and surf lifestyle than in one of South Seas Plantation's private Beach Cottages. All twenty-six cottages, consisting of duplex and fourplex units, overlook Captiva's natural shell sand beach and the Gulf of Mexico.

Nestled among six acres of tropical island vegetation, these low density Beach Cottages have been designed for maximum privacy and greenspace. Floor plans feature versatile living space in either two bedroom, two bath units or two bedroom, two bath plus sleeping loft units. Heated pool, gas grills and tennis court are private to Cottage residents.

When you select a Beach Cottage for either a year round home or vacation hideaway, you'll discover both the value and pleasure of ownership at South Seas Plantation Resort & Yacht Harbour.
